Dear Volunteer,

Thanks for volunteering to help clean and maintain your city parks and trails!

Parks and Recreation appreciates your willingness to volunteer your time help improve park and trail areas. Due to the nature of being in any outdoor environment, this type of effort involves a degree of danger and there is a risk of personal injury while performing the work. By volunteering to perform work, you assume those risks. The City of Fayetteville cannot be responsible for an injury to you or others that might occur while you are volunteering in our park and trails. Please follow these general guidelines:

The City of Fayetteville cannot be responsible for any damage caused to your tools or equipment. Please take precautions to protect tools or equipment if left unsupervised in the park.

Use proper protective equipment for the work you are performing. This includes appropriate foot wear, eye protection, gloves, and any other required protective gear.

Your safety and the safety of all park and trail patrons are of utmost importance. The entire work zone must be monitored while work is being performed. Additionally, work must be performed at non-peak park usage to minimize user conflicts. Pay attention and look for park patrons that may enter your work zone, especially along the trail system, in order to avoid collisions. Please inform park patrons of the cleanup effort that is taking place.

Park staff must be notified prior to any work being performed.

Thanks again for your willingness to volunteer. Watch for hazards and stay safe! Please remember to always report your volunteer hours immediately. You may report your hours and location worked to parksvolunteer@fayetteville-ar.gov or by calling (479) 444-3467

In order to participate, the City of Fayetteville requires you acknowledge these risks and fully release the City from any and all liability by reading and signing the following:
